DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

October 2015

LAST CALL for Pastoral Ministry-Korean Cohort Applications!

The Andrews Doctor of Ministry program gives those serving congregations in the United States—or in other regions of the globe—an opportunity to pursue a professional doctorate with instruction in the Korean language. No TOEFL is required for spoken English, however you will be expected to read and understand program materials and textbooks in the English language. The curriculum is designed to develop competencies in these areas:

- Enhance collegial relationships with cohort peers and professors
- Embrace ministry in diverse and multicultural settings
- Have a clear biblical theology of pastoral ministry
- Gain understanding of how to face ministerial challenges inductively within a sound theological framework
- Have a working knowledge of missiological issues facing second- or later-generation Korean contexts in western culture

The teaching intensives for the first year will be January 4-22, 2016, at La Sierra, California. The coordinator for this new concentration is Dr. P. Richard Choi.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Applicants may not join a cohort once it is in progress—you must start NOW, at the cohort launch!

You have until October 30, 2015 to start your application (but the earlier, the better)! You will find instructions, information, and a link for the DMin application package on the Graduate Enrollment page of the Andrews University website. For more information about how to prepare for participation in this cohort, contact the DMin office TODAY! Email dmin@andrews.edu; call 269-471-3544 or 888-717-6244.

DMin Alumnus in the News

Dr. Timothy Madding (DMin 2012) currently the lead pastor of the Beltsville, Maryland Seventh-day Adventist church, recently launched a sermon series: “Seven Days Without.” It’s attracted media attention because he isn’t just preaching the sermons—he’s living them!

For the first in the series, “Seven Days Without a Home,” Pastor Tim actually lived on the streets, slept in a homeless shelter, and ate meals with long-term homeless people. Subsequent weeks focus on being without shoes, food, water, voice, freedom, and health. He strongly advocates for his members to get actively involved in their community to make a difference. See more about his work at sevendayswithout.com.
