DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

July 2017

Deadline Approaching for Cohorts to Launch in 2017!

Multiethnic/Multicultural Mission and Ministry

The all-new Multiethnic/Multicultural Mission and Ministry concentration is designed to develop visionary ministers and equip them with the competencies needed to lead multiethnic/multicultural churches and ministries. Drs. Kenley Hall and Bruce Bauer will lead in discovery of best methods to develop effective models for doing multiethnic/multicultural ministry and mission.

Liderazgo \(en Español\)

Drs. Ricardo Norton and Fernando Ortiz will guide a cohort of professionals who wish to build on their knowledge and increase their understanding of leadership skills.

- Engage in a learning process aimed at enhancing personal spirituality, enriching personal life.
- Develop an advanced understanding of sound theological and theoretical foundations that support Christian leadership and how those foundations contribute to responsible ministry for the worldwide church.
- Contribute to the mission of the church by wise and competent application of leadership theology and theory to practical and innovative solutions for ministry leadership challenges.

The application deadline is July 31, 2017! First-year intensives will begin September 11, 2017 at the Andrews University campus.

All cohorts are limited to 25 participants. Applications are considered on a first-come, first-served basis, so it's to your advantage to apply early! See the online application to start the process. Questions about the program? Contact dmin@andrews.edu.

Changes in DMin Office Staff

Lisa Navarro has joined the DMin office staff as the new Learning and Assessment Administrative Assistant. She grew up in California where she attended Pacific Union College. Lisa’s husband is in the MDiv program, while Lisa plans to soon begin a graduate program in social work. She will provide academic support for intensives, and will be the go-to person for arranging oral assessments and graduation. Her bilingual skills provide an additional level of service. Lisa can be contacted at 269-471-3552 or dminla@andrews.edu. Welcome, Lisa!

New DMin Alumni

At the recent commencement ceremonies following spring semester, twenty-seven hard-working ministry professionals gained the title “Doctor of Ministry.” Graduates originate from many different places in addition to the United States: Brazil, Colombia, Kenya, Russia, and South Africa. Project topics covered many areas, such as leadership issues, marriage and family challenges, multicultural ministry, involving youth in ministry, singles ministry, discipleship, missional church, mentoring, and more. Congratulations to the graduates! (Pictured at left: Dr. Danaran Frederick with Prof. Steve Case)

Summer-Fall 2017 Program Schedule

DMin alumni are welcome to utilize their ongoing learning benefit as participants at any of these intensives at no tuition charge. Spouses of enrolled or alumni participants are also invited. Call or email the DMin office to make a reservation. (Years in parenthesis identify the cohort according to the year in which it was formed.) Pay careful attention to the venues and dates, as some may have changed from the originally-published schedule!
