Module (or Course) Description

Investigates 21st century western culture and corresponding mission praxis. Includes theological reflection, literature review, theory, and practical application of learning in the context of professional ministry. Prepared for leaders who desire to move from maintenance to mission; church planters and administrative leaders who wish to gain an understanding of the implications of missional church.

A seismic shift has occurred within Christendom. Once the center of Christian thought and mission, Western culture is rapidly becoming alien to Christianity, both in its institutional form and its biblical construct. Today, outside of the 10-40 window, Western culture is the greatest mission field that the Christian church faces. Therefore, those who lead ministry in the 21st Century must learn how to reposition their thinking and practice in order to accomplish Christian mission according to the biblical mandate.

Participants in the Missional Church 2011 Cohort take the following modules and courses in the following sequence:

CHMN707 Incarnational Missional Church (April 20-May 1, 2011)
GSEM790 Project Seminar (May 1-6, 2011)
GSEM706 Spiritual and Theological Foundations for Ministry (May 7-17, 2012)
GSEM730 Field Research for Ministry (Spring Semester 2012)
CHMN708 Transformational Leadership and Organic Systems Thinking (April 28-May 7 2013)
CHMN709 Multiplying Leaders for Mission (April 27-May 6 2014)

CHMN707 Incarnational Missional Church
This module investigates a current understanding of 21st century mission praxis in western culture. It includes theological reflection, literature review, theory, and practical application of learning in the context of professional ministry. The course is prepared especially for leaders who desire to move from maintenance to mission; church planters and administrative leaders who wish to gain an understanding of the implications of a missional church strategy.

GSEM706 Spiritual and Theological Foundations for Ministry
This module looks at theological and spiritual foundations as a basis for engagement in ministry. Ministry is based on being as well as doing. This module builds the spiritual and theological foundation from which the practice of mission and ministry grows and seeks to lead the participant into a self-reflection and examination of life and belief.

CHMN708 Transformational Leadership and Organic Systems Thinking
Participants continue personal and theological reflection with integration principles for leading change. Systems thinking, transformation of the organizational culture, and human development theory are investigated in the context of missional leadership. The module also pursues further development and application of missional-lifestyle modeling. Practical focus on incarnational mission skills is initiated.

CHMN709 Multiplying Leaders for Mission
Leaders must transact the vision through developing disciples to become the church according to the Biblical model for creating an apostolic movement. Those whom missional servants lead must become mature in Christ in order for a missional movement to be multiplied. Skills such as coaching and mentoring will be taught so that the leader can develop broken people to maturity in Christ.

Concentration Outcomes
The outcomes of the missional church concentration include; 1) a knowledge base, 2) a transformational emphasis on being, and 3) doing evidenced in skill training for missional church practices.

Knowing: The knowledge base has the four following components:

1. A current understanding of 21st century mission praxis in western culture
2. The development of the spiritual life as the foundation for mission
3. Leading transformation for mission; systems thinking
4. Transacting the vision of missional church through leadership development

Being: In the process of the missional church concentration, participants will experience development in the following seven areas:

1. One’s identity formed through spiritual discipleship
2. An exemplar of wholeness as defined by spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being
3. Incarnational mission as a way of life
4. A shaper of missional culture
5. A lifelong learner
6. Agent of transformation and restoration
7. Appreciation of multi-ethnic collaboration for mission
Doing: Participants in the missional church concentration also incorporate skills which demonstrate competency in areas fitting their context selected from the fourteen missional practices listed below:

1. Implementing spiritual discipleship into the fast paced life of the 21st century
2. Forming habits for spiritual and emotional renewal
3. Discerning and following the Spirit’s movement
4. Modeling incarnational ministry
5. Abiding with broken people
6. Establishing a “dashboard” of critical indicators for missional church leadership
7. Utilizing systems thinking to create a process model
8. Processing change
9. Developing a team for Biblical church leadership
10. Utilizing coaching as a platform for leadership development
11. Developing organic discipleship as a foundation for developing leaders
12. Leading a movement of multiplication
13. Facilitating community transformation through collaboration and networking
14. Creating a culture of inclusivity for missional practice

The Cohort

This module or course is open to members of this cohort, who take the sequence of modules and courses together as listed in the Description. Cohort members will meet in groups between intensives and pursue projects that advance their competencies. On completion, they will have completed a Missional Church Concentration in their DMin program.

Always consult the Doctor of Ministry program planner at www.doctorofministry.com for possible adjustments to the date and locations of future teaching intensives.
Module (or Course) Requirements

Pre-Intensive
A. Reading Requirements
   Please email cauley@andrews.edu for the reading list for this course.

B. Reading Reports
   For each of these books, a three-page, double-spaced, reading report must be prepared in printed form. Page 1 should be a careful summary of the book. Page 2 should evaluate key ideas of the book. Page 3 should suggest principles from this book that can shape and lead you into the missional life. Careful following of these 3 parts of the report is required.

   Reports should concisely state key ideas and can be done in semi-outline form if desired. Reports will be graded on how they reflect careful thought and analysis of the material and follow the 3 parts listed above. All book reports are due at the beginning of the intensive. Late book reports will receive a substantial reduction in grade. Each report should include the following statement of academic honesty along with your signature, “I have read ___% of the assigned text and this report represents my own work.”

   Books can be purchased in any manner convenient to the participant. Some books are available used at the Amazon online book store.

The Intensive
A. Punctual attendance is required for all classes. A maximum of 10% absence from total teaching time is allowed.

B. Attendance at the 2011 Exponential Church Planting Conference is required for all participants, the conference is structured to be a part of the curriculum. A $99 dollar fee is payable at the beginning of class registration. Participants are expected to provide a 4-5 page reflection/first steps action plan taken from significant learnings gleaned and first steps inspired to take as a result from attendance at seminars and plenary sessions.

C. Participants will begin a ministry development plan that is comprised of the following four parts: 1) Description of present situation, 2) Personal Vision, 3) Action Plan, 4) Helping and Hindering Forces.

D. During the intensive each student will be required to submit a 2-3 paragraph reflection via email of the insights gained during the day to Drs. Cauley by 9pm each evening.

E. Participants will be scheduled for 30 minute personal sessions with Drs. Cauley to begin forming their project chapter. (Note: It is helpful if participants come with a project idea in mind.)
Post Intensive
A. A Ministry Development Plan of 5 – 6 pages is due November 1, 2011.

B. Students will form a context support group of five to seven persons from their specific ministry context who will meet face-to-face annually with them to review their MDP. The meetings will center on personal and professional progress. The first meeting must occur on or before August 1, 2011. The group will review the MDP and its role with materials provided during the intensive.

C. Students will participate in a minimum of two sessions of a work group for peer support and sharing of experience.
   a) A journal and attendance record of the group meetings will be required from a secretary for each group by February 1, 2012.
   b) The first group meeting must occur on or before June 1, 2011, and review the work of each student on chapter 2, definition and analysis of the context in which the project will be carried out.
   c) The second group meeting must occur on or before December 1, 2011, and review chapter 2, definition and analysis of the context in which the project will be carried out.
   d) Groups may meet by phone conference, face-to-face, or via electronic conference.

D. Chapter three of your project dissertation, a paper of at least 16 but no more than 25 pages, will be required providing a review of missional literature relevant to your project challenge. The Andrews University Standards for Written Work, 11th Edition (or more recent edition) will provide the standards for the project chapter.

Assessment
Assessment is accomplished by evaluating participation and assignments around the competencies of the concentration. There are seven competencies in the area of being, three in the area of knowing, and two broad competencies in the area of doing. The chart below describes the process of judging the integration of those competencies. Distinctions become vague when the contribution of all experience to the cyclical process of true learning in the areas of being, knowing, and doing are considered.
