

God's Values & Holistic Small Groups Church

Name: _____

Date: _____

I read this section before coming to class

Yes

No

You may discuss these questions with your group, but provide your own answers (don't use the same answer as someone else in the group unless you came up with it separately).

1. Name the values you see our church holding. What tells you these are values?

2. Where does our church most need value change?

3. What is the next step in living God's values in our church?

Edification In The Cell

Names and ID# of those present in this group

Date

Practice Time:

Go around the group taking turns sharing a need or struggle. While one shares, the others listen to the person, and also listen to what God may be wanting to say through you to that person. Spend a few moments with each person, then pray for that person before going on to the next one.

18. From your reading of the chapter, what elements of an effective equipping system do you see as being more (or maybe less) effective than the way we equip individuals at the present time and why is this so, in your opinion? (Don't forget the "why")

19. How can weekend training events help enhance one-on-one mentoring in discipleship?

Affinity Groups/Free Market Groups

Name _____ Date: _____

I read this section before coming to class: Yes No

You may discuss these questions with your group, but provide your own answers (don't use the same answer as someone else in the group unless you came up with it separately).

1. What kind of people or what situations would work well in each of these groups (Write small!)
 - A. Relationship-oriented
 - B. Content-oriented
 - C. Need-oriented
 - D. Task-oriented

2. What advantages do you see Holistic Small Groups having over affinity/free market groups? Any disadvantages?

3. How would you use affinity/free market groups to complement Holistic Groups?

4. What is the goal in affinity/free market groups?

5. Brainstorm at least 5 other kinds of groups than what you find in the manual. Use the back of this sheet if you don't have enough room here.

The Worship Experience
