Four Reading/Reaction Reports and Research Paper or Two Sermons—Due December 10, 2018

GUIDELINES FOR THE RESEARCH PAPER—SEVEN PARTS (SUMMARY)

- 1. Title—crucial choice; it gives the main thought and flavor to the paper and tells what a reader can expect and look for.
- 2. Table of contents—very important item which shows the flow of thoughts; it must flow straight like a river; more detailed content is better for understanding of the development of the argument (fully developed and written at the end of the writing process).
- 3. Introduction—it must contain:
 - a. Statement of the problem.
 - b. Purpose of the study (intention)—significant questions have to be asked what to expect and what should be accomplished.
 - c. Methodology—how the study will be conducted to get the final results.
 - d. History of Interpretation (major studies).
 - e. Delimitation of the study.
- 4. Main Body of the Study—logical steps (not all items must necessarily be included):
 - 1st Step—Choice of the text (5-10 verses)

Delimitation of the text (justify the beginning and end of the passage)

Translation of the text

2nd Step—Historical background of the chosen book or/and passage (authorship, main persons, events, places, dates, archaeology).

3rd Step—Literary context

Larger (general) context

Immediate context

- 4th Step—Literary structure of the selected passage.
- 5th Step—Literary genre —narrative, poetry, prophecy, genealogy, parable, prayer, dream, irony, hymn, song, irony, dialogue, speech, etc.
- 6th Step—Content and grammatical study of the text: key words, unique vocabulary, frequency, sentences, syntax, sounds, patterns, plot, intention of the text, main thoughts, play words, concepts, ideas, allusions, puns, specific features, repetitions, parallels, inclusio, rhythm, accents, rhetoric, etc.
- 7th Step—Theology and message (relevancy and application with illustrations).

- 5. Intertextuality—how the chosen biblical text is used in the rest of the Old Testament and then in the New Testament.
- 6. Summary and Conclusion—need to match with the introduction; summary of the study may be provided; clear answers must be given to the research introductory questions (unique contribution(s) may be mentioned).
- 7. Bibliography—books and articles with full data.

 An excellent paper is always supplied with appropriate footnotes which are like windows to support what was stated in the text and provide additional material for further study.

CLASS POLICIES

Classroom Policy

No recording of the lectures will be allowed.

Disability Accommodations

If you qualify for accommodation under the American Disabilities Act, please contact the professor as soon as possible so that accommodations can be arranged.

Emergency Protocols

Andrews University takes the safety of its students seriously. Signs identifying emergency protocol are posted throughout the buildings. Instructors will provide guidance and direction to students in the classroom in the event of an emergency affecting that specific location. It is important that you follow these instructions and stay with your instructor during any evacuation or sheltering emergency.

Academic Integrity

"In harmony with the mission statement (p.18), Andrews University expects that students will demonstrate the ability to think clearly for themselves and exhibit personal and moral integrity in every sphere of life. Thus, students are expected to display honesty in all academic matters.

Academic dishonesty includes (but is not limited to) the following acts: falsifying official documents; plagiarizing, which includes copying others' published work, and/or failing to give credit properly to other authors and creators; misusing copyrighted material and/or violating licensing agreements (actions that may result in legal action in addition to disciplinary action taken by the University); using media from any source or medium, including the Internet (e.g., print, visual images, music) with the intent to mislead, deceive or defraud; presenting another's work as one's own (e.g. placement exams, homework, assignments); using material during a quiz or examination other than those specifically allowed by the teacher or program; stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials; copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz; assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty (e.g., falsifying attendance records, providing unauthorized course materials).

Andrews University takes seriously all acts of academic dishonesty. Such acts as described above are subject to incremental discipline for multiple offenses and severe penalties for some offenses. These acts are tracked in the office of the Provost. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to the Committee for Academic Integrity for recommendations on further penalties. Consequences may include denial of admission, revocation of admission, warning from a teacher with or without formal documentation, warning from a chair or academic dean with formal documentation, receipt of a reduced or failing grade with or without notation of the reason on the transcript, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university.

Departments or faculty members may publish additional, perhaps more stringent, penalties for academic dishonesty in specific programs or courses." (Current AU Bulletin)

Class Absences

"Whenever the number of absences exceeds 20% (10% for graduate classes) of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

Registered students are considered class members until they file a Change of Registration form in the Office of Academic records." (Current AU Bulletin)

Class Attendance

"Regular attendance at all classes, laboratories and other academic appointments is required for each student. Faculty members are expected to keep regular attendance records. Whenever the number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence." (Current AU Bulletin.)

Excused Absences

"Excuses for absences due to illness are granted by the teacher. Proof of illness is required. Residence hall students are required to see a nurse on the first day of any illness which interferes with class attendance. Non-residence hall students should show written verification of illness obtained from their own physician. Excuses for absences not due to illness are issued directly to the dean's office. Excused absences do not remove the student's responsibility to complete all requirements of a course. Class work is made up by permission of the teacher." (Current AU Bulletin.)

Language and Grammar

There is an expectation that a student enrolled in a graduate program possesses advanced written language skills, particularly in the language in which the degree is acquired. Thus, no special consideration will be given to English as a second language learners or native-English speakers who have yet to obtain mastery in written English. Such students are advised to seek the assistance of the campus writing lab or procure the services of an editor prior to the submission of their assignments. Tips for success include reading your assignments aloud and having someone else do likewise prior to submission. This practice will provide you with immediate feedback on your written assignments.

Late Submission of Assessment

All late assessment will incur a 10% per week penalty.

The following penalties will be applied for late submission of assessment items:

Assignments received by due date: (possible A grade) Delay up to 60 days: (no better than an A- grade) Delay up to 90 days: (no better than a B+ grade) Delay up to 120 days: (no better than a B grade) Delay up to 150 days: (no better than a C grade)

Teacher Tardiness

"Teachers have the responsibility of getting to class on time. If a teacher is detained and will be late, the teacher must send a message to the class with directions. If after 10 minutes no message has been received, students may leave without penalty. If teacher tardiness persists, students have the right to notify the department chair, or if the teacher is the department chair, to notify the dean." (Current AU Bulletin.)
