PROGRAM & COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Your degree program seeks to help you achieve the Program Learning Outcomes basic to your chosen profession. Your Program Learning Outcome primarily addressed in this course is to demonstrate proper biblical interpretation skills.

(The full set of program learning outcomes for your degree program is listed in Appendix 2.)

The following Course Learning Outcomes contribute to the overall Program Learning Outcomes by identifying the key learnings to be achieved by diligent work in this course:

1. Describe the content, literary design, and theology of the book of Revelation.
2. Explain the primary meaning of the text in its literary context.
3. Employ hermeneutical tools for study and meaningful interpretation of Revelation's prophecies from the SDA perspective.
4. Use the class material for preaching and teaching.
5. Develop an ability for original thinking and critical judgment.

COURSE OVERVIEW

MORE ABOUT THE COURSE

TIME EXPECTATIONS FOR THE COURSE

US Credit-Hour Regulations

For every semester credit, the Andrews University credit hour definition requires that:

Courses for professional masters' degrees (e.g. MAPM) include 15 instructor contact hours and 30 hours of independent learning activities.

The calculation of hours is based on the study skills of the average well-prepared graduate student.

Students weak in these skills:

- 1) may require more time and should consider taking fewer classes each semester; and
- 2) can find skill development assistance through the Seminary Study and Research Skills Colloquia, the AU Writing Center, and AU Student Success office.

In order to achieve the outcomes of this course, learning time will be distributed as follows:

Professional Masters' Programs
3 Credits
Instructor Contact Hours	Face to face instructional time	30 hrs
	Other Instructor-directed activities (watching the videos)	15 hrs
Independent Learning Activities	Reading Revelation from the Bible	3 hrs
	Assigned book readings	55 hrs
	Critical Book Review	7 hrs
	Preparation for the exams	10 hrs
	Summary notes of the videos	15 hrs
Total Hours:		135 hours

GUIDELINES FOR COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Grades are based on the independent learning activities below which provide practice toward, and assessment of, the learning outcomes of this course. The grade weighting for each assignment is provided in the right-hand column. Specific due dates are given in the Course Overview above.

Assignment Description	Weighting
Exam	50%
Reading the book of Revelation (the Bible)	2%
Video Summaries	5%
Exegetical Research Paper	18%
Assigned book readings (Stefanovic 20%, Paulien 5%)	25%

* For grading rubrics that specify grading criteria in more detail, see Appendix 1.

In order to make grading fair for everyone, grades will be assigned on the basis of the above requirements alone. No individual arrangements will be made for those requesting last minute grade adjustment or extra credit.

AU Bulletin: "An Incomplete (I) indicates that the student's work is incomplete because of illness or unavoidable circumstances and not because of negligence or inferior performance. Students will be charged an incomplete fee for each incomplete grade issued." DGs are not an option for most types of courses.

Submission of Assignments

Assignments are to be turned in on Learning Hub before the beginning of the class period at which they are due (unless otherwise announced).

Late Submission

Because student assignments are an essential part of class activities, assignments turned in after the time they are due will be worth a maximum of 50% of possible points. Any requests for extra time on an assignment must be made in advance with the professor. Such requests should be a rarity and should be accompanied by a valid reason why the work could not be done by the date due.

Ranko Stefanovic holds a PhD in the area of New Testament with an emphasis on the book of Revelation. Prior to joining the faculty at Andrews University, he served for eighteen years as an ordained SDA minister in his home country of what used to be Yugoslavia. After a contract teaching for a year and a half in the SDA Theological Seminary, he moved to Canadian University College, Canada, where he taught and chaired the Department of Religious Studies from 1996-1999. From 1999-2009, he taught at the Department of Religion, Andrews University where he also chaired the department in the period from 2006-2009. In 2009, he moved to the SDA Theological Seminary where he is currently teaching in the New Testament Department.

Stefanovic has presented scholarly papers at professional societies including Society of Biblical Literature, Chicago Society for Biblical Research, Adventist Society for Religious Studies, and Adventist Theological Society. In addition to numerous scholarly and popular articles, he has authored Revelation of Jesus Christ, a 670-page commentary on the book of Revelation, which is the standard textbook in many Adventist colleges and universities, and his most recent book Plain Revelation: A Reader's Introduction to the Apocalypse. He also authored the Sabbath School Quarterly Lessons for January-March 2019. He wrote commentaries on 2 Thessalonians and Revelation for the upcoming Andrews Bible Commentary, and the commentary on Romans for New International SDA Commentary. He did numerous programs on 3ABN television network including a 26-program series on Matthew and a 26-one-hour-program series on the book of Revelation. He is a sought-after speaker and lecturer at symposiums, seminars, workers meetings, camp meetings, and various gatherings across the globe.

He is married to Estera; they have two grown children.

OTHER COURSE-RELATED POLICIES

Attendance

Regular attendance is required at all classes and other academic appointments. When the total number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may assign a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

Academic Integrity

The Seminary expects its students to exhibit rigorous moral integrity appropriate to ministry leaders representing Jesus Christ. Complete honesty in academic matters is a vital component of such integrity. Any breach of academic integrity in this class is subject to discipline. Consequences may include receipt of a reduced or failing grade, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university. A record of academic integrity violations is maintained by the University Student Academic Integrity Council. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to an Academic Integrity Panel for recommendations on further penalties.

Academic Dishonesty includes:

- Plagiarism in which one fails to give credit every time use is made of another person's ideas or exact words, whether in a formal paper or in submitted notes or assignments. Credit is to be given by use of:
 - Correctly designed and inserted footnotes each time one makes use of another individual's research and/or ideas; and
 - Quotation marks placed around any exact phrases or sentences (3 or more words) taken from the text or speech of another individual.
- Presenting another's work as one's own (e.g., placement exams, homework assignments);
- Using materials during a quiz or examination other than those explicitly allowed by the teacher or program;
- Stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials;
- Copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz;
- Assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty
- Submitting the same work or major portions thereof, without permission from the instructors, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course.

Academic Accommodations

If you qualify for accommodation under the American Disabilities Act, please see contact Student Success in Nethery Hall 100 (disabilities@andrews.edu or 269-471-6096) as soon as possible so that accommodations can be arranged.

Use of Electronics

No recording or streaming is permitted in seminary courses.

Courtesy, respect, and professionalism dictate that laptops and cell phones are to be used only for class-related activities during class time.

Communications and Updates

Email is the official form of communication at Andrews University. Students are responsible for checking their Andrews University e-mail, Moodle, and iVue alerts regularly.

LearningHub Access

Andrews University Learning Hub hosts this course online. Your Learning Hub username and password are the same as your Andrews username and password. Use the following contact information if you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub.

Username and password assistance	helpdesk@andrews.edu	(269) 471-6016
Technical assistance with Learning Hub	dlit@andrews.edu	(269) 471-3960

Emergency Protocol

Andrews University takes the safety of its student seriously. Signs identifying emergency protocol are posted throughout buildings. Instructors will provide guidance and direction to students in the classroom in the event of an emergency affecting that specific location. It is important that you follow these instructions and stay with your instructor during any evacuation or sheltering emergency.

APPENDIX 1: INTERPRETING LETTER GRADES

Letter Grades and Percentages:

95-100%	A	80-84%	B	65-69%	C
90-94%	A-	75-79%	B-	60-64%	C-
85-89%	B+	70-74%	C+	55-59%	D

THE A GRADE

An A grade is given only when a student not only fulfills the criteria for a B grade, but in doing so demonstrates an advanced academic aptitude for content knowledge, critique, synthesis and independent insight, while exhibiting highly developed communication skills and professional publication standards that would allow them to pursue a highly competitive academic career.

THE B GRADE

The B grade is a sign that you have competently fulfilled all of the requirements stipulated for an assessment or competency evaluation. It is a very good grade and demonstrates a high level of the knowledge, insight, critical competence and professional presentation standards essential for an individual wishing to pursue a career as a professional leader in ministry.

THE C GRADE

The C grade differs only from a B grade in that the traits outlined in the B grade above are not consistently applied. However, with diligence and by applying feedback from your lecturer, the academic process can provide opportunity for a student to improve their consistency, and hence, their grade.

THE D GRADE

The D grade points to a limited level of knowledge, insight, and critique, as well as to inadequate quality of written work. This may be because of a lack of time management on the part of the student, difficulty grasping the concepts being taught, use of English as a second language, or a personal issue that is affecting one's concentration and motivation levels. Again, with diligence, applying feedback from your lecturer, and seeking services offered by the University like the writing lab or the counseling center, the academic process can provide an opportunity for a student to significantly improve their performance.

THE F GRADE

A failing grade is given when very limited or no demonstrable competency has been observed.

APPENDIX 4: GUIDELINES FOR WRITING THE RESEARCH PAPERS

The research paper is based on an exegetical analysis of a chosen text. Scholarly sources must be consulted and referred to in the footnotes to support what was stated in the text. The students are expected to follow the steps from Fee's New Testament Exegesis, pp. 32, 34-41, 45-50 (step 1-8, 9G-11G) and the format of the AU Standards for Written Work at <http://www.andrews.edu/grad/documents/sww11>.

IMPORTANT: You do not write a paper because you know everything about a subject, but because you want to learn more. Writing the paper will help you learn more about a subject than you could have otherwise (Walter McConnell).

1. Title – the paper must have the title page containing the name of the institution, the title of the paper, the name of the class, the name of the student, and the date.

2. Introduction – it explains:

- The statement of the problem
- The purpose of the paper—what is expected to achieve
- Methodology—how the research is going to be done

4. Main Body of the Paper (not all items must necessarily be included):

A. TEXTUAL ANALYSIS

1st Step - Choice of the text

2nd Step - Textual analysis

- mark the key terms and phrases;
- grammatical analysis including syntax, use of the term by the same author, frequency, logical progression, play words, repetitions, rhetoric, allusions, concepts, etc. Use the tools (concordance, lexicons, Bible dictionaries, encyclopedias, commentaries, and other books);
- Establish the correct translation of the text

3rd Step - Literary genre (narrative, poetry, prophecy, genealogy, parable, prayer, dream/vision, irony, hymn, song, irony, dialogue, speech, etc.)

B. CONTEXTUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TEXT:

4th Step - Literary context

- larger (general) context of the book
- immediate context

5th Step - Literary structure of the selected passage.

6th Step - Intertextuality (how the chosen biblical text is related to the rest of the New Testament and then, to the rest of the Bible)

7th Step - Theology and message (relevancy and application).

5. Summary and Conclusion – it consists of two parts: (1) it summarizes briefly the findings, and (2) draws conclusions of the paper. The section must match the statement of the problem and the purpose of the research in the introduction.

6. Bibliography – a list of the sources used with full data.

Be aware of plagiarism – you must acknowledge the source in the footnote if your major idea expressed has come from somebody.
