BULLETIN DESCRIPTION OF COURSE

This course is designed to acquaint students with the opportunities for ministry to and with young people in the church, school and home. The biblical principles of youth and young adult ministry, within the context of the church community, are given primary emphasis.

Students will have an in-depth study from a pastoral perspective of selected issues having to do with the spiritual development of youth and young adults from fourteen to twenty-five years of age. In particular, the reciprocal effects produced by the interaction of youth with such elements of their environment as home, church and society, will be examined for their potential impact on the fostering of that spiritual development.

TIME EXPECTATIONS FOR THE COURSE

US Credit-Hour Regulations

For every semester credit, the Andrews University credit hour definition requires that:

- Courses for professional masters' degrees (e.g. MDiv) include 15 instructor contact hours and 30 hours of independent learning activities.
- Courses for academic masters' (e.g. MA [Religion]) and all doctoral degrees include 15 instructor contact hours, and 45 hours of independent learning activities.

The calculation of hours is based on the study skills of the average well-prepared graduate student. Students weak in these skills: 1) may require more time and should consider taking fewer classes each semester; and 2) can find skill development assistance through the Seminary Study and Research Skills Colloquia, the AU Writing Center, and AU Student Success office.

In order to achieve the outcomes of this course, learning time will be distributed as follows:

Professional Masters' Programs
3 Credits
Instructor Contact Hours	Face to Face Instructional Time	33 hrs
	Other Instructor Directed Activities	12 hrs
Independent Learning Activities	Reading and Book Reports	49 hrs
	Presentations	11 hrs
	Contextualized Ministry Model	30 hrs
Total Hours:		135 hrs

GUIDELINES FOR POST-INTESIVE ASSIGNMENTS

Grades are based on the independent learning activities below which provide practice toward, and assessment of, the learning outcomes of this course. The grade weighting for each assignment is provided in the right-hand column. Specific due dates are given in the Course Overview above.

1. BOOK REPORTS

Students are to read completely both required texts for this class. Each report should be two pages in length and typed (double-spaced, 12 font, Times New Roman, not including name and title - See AU Standards of written Work), will be uploaded via LearningHub by 11:55 PM on the due date.

These reports will present practical evaluations of the readings. They should be cohesive and cogent as opposed to random thoughts. In the evaluations the students will write a 2-page total, one-page overview of the book and a one-page response that will seriously and briefly reflect on questions such as:

- i. What is your overall impression of your reading?
- ii. What is positive or negative and why?
- iii. What personal/theological insights did you gain?
- iv. What areas did you find most helpful and why?

2. CURRENT ISSUES GROUP PRESENTATION

The student, as a member of a class group, will do assigned research on behalf of the class regarding a current youth/young adult issue. Specific topics for research will be assigned during class.

This will result in:

- A 15-minute group presentation to the rest of the class on the assigned current youth/young adult issue,

Presentation Content

- Introduction
 - Explain why this topic is important and how it is relevant to the church today. It will be important [but don't spend too much time on it] but give us statistics and background
- Body
 - Explore and expound on the:
 - Sociological implications
 - Emotional implications
 - Psychological implications
 - Pastoral (church) implications and response

Conclusion

Bring all implications together succinctly and elaborate how you would use this info in order to empower youth and young adults to be discerning. What's the practical application of your research?

Keep in mind the major theme that we are trying to achieve is how we can as pastors help youth and young adults be DISCERNING in these areas as they engage with these issues in their life. We are not wanting to legislate but to help and empower the youth and young adults to live the best life possible by making informed choices.

Criteria for Assessment:

- | | |
|--|-----|
| i. Thoroughness/Research Content (Theological foundation/Current Studies/Analysis) | 40% |
| ii. Applicability (effective across the board) | 20% |
| iii. Creativity/Relevance. | 20% |
| iv. Presentation (use of Technology, logical flow, established conclusions.) | 20% |

The class will give input to the final grade awarded for this requirement. To be fair to everyone when we hand out the grading sheets during class presentations, one question will be how did the rest of the group members collaborate in the project?

3. CONTEXTUALIZED MINISTRY MODEL

Write a 5-page paper based on discussions and presentations in class. This is not a research paper—it is a practical application of what you have learned in this course. Each paper will contain these elements:

1. Introduction: this will give an overview of the paper and why it has been prepared (1/2 page).
2. Philosophy of Youth & Young Adult Ministry: Overall philosophy of your approach to effective Y&YA ministry in your church and a list of events that will help you to accomplish this (1 ½ pages).
3. Recruiting and Training Y&YA Leaders: How you plan to recruit and train the Y&YA ministry leaders in your church and cast the vision for your philosophy of Y&YA ministry (1 page).
4. Resourcing Volunteer Y&YA Leaders: An annotated list of the primary resources you will provide to your Y&YA leaders and how you plan to keep this list updated and relevant (1 page).
5. Mentoring Your Volunteer Y&YA Leaders: How you will inspire and share community, devotional life and the power of the Holy Spirit in yourself and your Y&YA ministry team (1/2 page).
6. Conclusion (1/2 page).

4. CLASS PARTICIPATION

Class attendance and participation is required and vital due to the intense and interactive nature of the course (whether face-to-face, or via Zoom). Students are required to have their cameras turned on for the entire duration of the lesson. If a student must miss more than three hours of class, the final grade will be lowered by one full letter.

Assignments Description & Weighting

Assignment Description	Weighting
2 Book Reports	30%
Current Issues Preparation & Presentation	30%
Contextualized Ministry Model	40%
Total	100%

* For grading rubrics that specify grading criteria in more detail, see assignment description above

In order to make grading fair for everyone, grades will be assigned on the basis of the above requirements alone. No individual arrangements will be made for those requesting last minute grade adjustment or extra credit.

(The AU Bulletin states that: "An Incomplete (I) indicates that the student's work is incomplete because of illness or unavoidable circumstances and not because of negligence or inferior performance. Students will be charged an incomplete fee for each incomplete grade issued." DGs are not an option for most types of courses.)

Submission of Assignments

Assignments are to be turned in on LearningHub according to the description above.

Late Submission

Because student assignments are an essential part of class activities, assignments turned in after the time they are due will lose 10% per week it is late. Any requests for extra time on an assignment must be made in advance with the professor. Such requests should be a rarity and should be accompanied by a valid reason why the work cannot be done by the date due.

Resubmission of Assignments

No resubmissions possible

All assignments will be subject to the Andrews Standards for Written Work.

OTHER COURSE-RELATED POLICIES

Attendance

Regular attendance is required at all classes and other academic appointments. When the total number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may assign a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

Academic Integrity

The Seminary expects its students to exhibit rigorous moral integrity appropriate to ministry leaders representing Jesus Christ. Complete honesty in academic matters is a vital component of such integrity. Any breach of academic integrity in this class is subject to discipline. Consequences may include receipt of a reduced or failing grade, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university. A record of academic integrity violations is maintained by the University Student Academic Integrity Council. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to an Academic Integrity Panel for recommendations on further penalties.

Academic Dishonesty includes:

- Plagiarism in which one fails to give credit every time use is made of another person's ideas or exact words, whether in a formal paper or in submitted notes or assignments. Credit is to be given by use of:
 - Correctly designed and inserted footnotes each time one makes use of another individual's research and/or ideas; and
 - Quotation marks placed around any exact phrases or sentences (3 or more words) taken from the text or speech of another individual.
- Presenting another's work as one's own (e.g., placement exams, homework assignments);
- Using materials during a quiz or examination other than those explicitly allowed by the teacher or program;
- Stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials;
- Copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz;
- Assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty
- Submitting the same work or major portions thereof, without permission from the instructors, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course.

APPENDIX 2: INTERPRETING LETTER GRADES

Letter Grades and Percentages

95-100%	A	80-84%	B	65-69%	C
90-94%	A-	75-79%	B-	60-64%	C-
85-89%	B+	70-74%	C+	55-59%	D

THE B GRADE

The B grade is a sign that you have competently fulfilled all of the requirements stipulated for an assessment or competency evaluation. It is a very good grade and demonstrates a high level of the knowledge, insight, critical competence and professional presentation standards essential for an individual wishing to pursue a career as a professional leader in ministry.

THE A GRADE

An A grade is given only when a student not only fulfills the criteria for a B grade, but in doing so demonstrates an advanced academic aptitude for content knowledge, critique, synthesis and independent insight, while exhibiting highly developed communication skills and professional publication standards that would allow them to pursue a highly competitive academic career.

THE C GRADE

The C grade differs only from a B grade in that the traits outlined in the B grade above are not consistently applied. However, with diligence and by applying feedback from your lecturer, the academic process can provide opportunity for a student to improve their consistency, and hence, their grade.

THE D GRADE

The D grade points to a limited level of knowledge, insight, and critique, as well as to inadequate quality of written work. This may be because of a lack of time management on the part of the student, difficulty grasping the concepts being taught, use of English as a second language, or a personal issue that is affecting one's concentration and motivation levels. Again, with diligence, applying feedback from your lecturer, and seeking services offered by the University like the writing lab or the counseling center, the academic process can provide an opportunity for a student to significantly improve their performance.

THE F GRADE

A failing grade is given when very limited or no demonstrable competency has been observed.
