ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is required at all classes and other academic appointments. When the total number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may assign a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

GUIDELINES FOR COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Grades are based on the independent learning activities below which provide practice toward, and assessment of, the learning outcomes of this course. The grade weighting for each assignment is provided in the right-hand column. Specific due dates are given in the Course Overview above.

Assignment Description	Weighting
Attendance	30%
Reading and Critical Journaling: See description and list of articles/book chapters below. Due dates are also found below.	60%
Final Exam: This exam will be open book/open notes. It will be a take home exam. It will be made up of essay and short answer style questions. You will be required to take the exam by December 14 . The exam will be made available on by December 10. See rubric in Appendix 1 for grading criteria.	10%

* For grading rubrics that specify grading criteria in more detail, see Appendices.

In order to make grading fair for everyone, grades will be assigned on the basis of the above requirements alone. No individual arrangements will be made for those requesting last minute grade adjustment or extra credit.

(The AU Bulletin states that: “An Incomplete (I) indicates that the student’s work is incomplete because of illness or unavoidable circumstances and not because of negligence or inferior performance. Students will be charged an incomplete fee for each incomplete grade issued.”)

Submission of Assignments

Assignments are to be turned in on Learning Hub before 11:59 pm on the day they are due (unless otherwise announced).

Late Submission

Any requests for extra time on an assignment must be made in advance with the professor. Such requests should be a rarity and should be accompanied by a valid reason why the work could not be done by the date due.

90-94%	A-	80-83%	B-	70-72%	C-

COURSE MATERIALS

Required Course Materials

In this course there is no required textbook. Instead, there is a list of articles and book chapters that the students will be required to read. The list of titles they should read along with the due date can be found below. Each article/book chapter is available on Learning Hub in pdf format or via an online link.

For each article/book chapter the student will write a 1-2 page critical journal entry. This should be typed in a Word document in Times New Roman Font, size 12, double spaced and submitted on Learning Hub on the due date. Some dates may have more than one critical journal entry due. These are to be done on separate documents and turned in separately via Learning Hub.

These critical journal entries should NOT review the reading, I have already read all the articles/book chapters and do not need to know what they are about. Rather, the student must pick one or two items from the article/chapter and clearly state why they agree or disagree with these items. The purpose is for the student to critically engage with the readings and strengthen their critical thinking skills. I will be reading each entry and at times will share feedback on your critical journal entries.

US Credit-Hour Regulations

For every semester credit, the Andrews University credit hour definition requires that:

- Courses for professional masters' degrees (e.g. MAPM) include 15 instructor contact hours and 30 hours of independent learning activities.

The calculation of hours is based on the study skills of the average well-prepared graduate student. Students weak in these skills: 1) may require more time and should consider taking fewer classes each semester; and 2) can find skill development assistance through the Seminary Study and Research Skills Colloquia, the AU Writing Center, and AU Student Success office.

In order to achieve the outcomes of this course, learning time will be distributed as follows:

		Professional Masters' Programs
		3 Credits
Instructor Contact Hours	Face to Face Instructional Time	45 hrs
Independent Learning Activities	Reading and Critical Journal Entries	65 hrs
	Church Board Agenda	15 hrs
	Final Exam	10 hrs
Total Hours:		135 hrs

SDATS GUIDELINES FOR CALCULATING ASSIGNMENT LOADS

Average reading speed: 15-20 pages/hour for light reading not to be tested on

10-15 pages/hour for heavy reading for exams

Writing time: 2.5 – 3 hours/double spaced page, from start to finished product

Reflective Writing Assignment: 0.5 hour per page

Use of AI (Artificial Intelligence) for course assignments

"Submitting Artificial Intelligence (AI) generated text for your different assignments is not permitted. AI-generated content constitutes plagiarism and is a violation of the Andrews University academic integrity standards for students. Student assignments will be submitted to AI and/or plagiarism detection tools to ensure that the student work product is human-created, not AI-generated."

An exception to the policy is the use of Grammarly in order to edit the basic grammar of a document you have written yourself.
