- 2) Demonstrate proper biblical interpretation skills
- 3) Understand the historical-theological development of the Seventh-day Adventist Church

- 4) Exhibit capability for training church members for evangelism

The following Course Learning Outcomes contribute to the overall Program Learning Outcomes by identifying the key learnings to be achieved by diligent work in this course:

1. Develop solid biblical sermons that are both authentically biblical and relevant to the target audience.
2. Deliver sermons in a way that connects with and impacts the audience.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the pastor's vital role in shaping worship and the role of preaching in big picture worship.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Course topics and assignments have been selected to contribute to learning and evaluating these Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) as follows:

Week	Assignments Due
Pre-intensive	Introductory meeting via Zoom (https://andrews.zoom.us/j/98931755135?pwd=dN9iaNobOKodIuL7iq4jbWsbzvGIs4.1) to meet one another, review the syllabus, and view first lecture: Monday, August 25, 7:00p-9:30p (eastern time).
	Sermon Prep Paper 1 (PLO 1; CLO 1) [DUE BY SEPT 4] Verbatim manuscript of sermon #1 (textual) (PLO 1, 2) (CLO 1, 2) – This is due not later than September 4. Start reading the two assigned textbooks. Due to the brief time prior to the intensive, the book review of Nothing but the Best is due not later than October 6.

During the Intensive
	Sermon 1 – Textual sermon (PLO 1, 2; CLO 1, 2)
Post-Intensive
	Tisdale book review (PLO 1, 2; CLO (1-3); Sermon Prep Paper 2 (PLO 1, CLO 1); Verbatim manuscript of sermon #2 (prophetic) (PLO 1, 2, 6; CLO 1, 2); Sermon #2 (prophetic) (PLO 1, 2; CLO 1, 2); DVDs on Learning Hub (PLO 1, 2, CLO 1, 2); Self-Assessment of Sermon 2 (PLO 1, CLO 1, 2). SEE DUE DATES IN “REQUIREMENTS” SECTION BELOW NO WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER DEC 11 WITHOUT PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS

PRE-INTENSIVE REQUIREMENTS

- 1. Start reading the two assigned textbooks. Start with and review the book by Hyveth Williams first, because that book will prove beneficial especially as you prepare the first sermon. The Tisdale book will prove beneficial as you prepare the second sermon, and it will also inform the lectures toward the end of the intensive. The four-page review (minimum, excluding cover page) of each book should (a) summarize the contents of the book and (b) assess its strengths and weaknesses as pertaining to the subject matter. Additionally, the writer should (c) share how he/she wishes to incorporate into the sermons the lessons learned as pertaining to its subject matter.
- 2. Sermon Prep Paper: Students will be asked to turn in a sermon preparation paper for sermon #1. See the sermon preparation guide later in this syllabus (also uploaded on LearningHub). This is due no later than when the manuscript is submitted.

For Sermon 1, complete the Textual Sermon Preparation Paper. It must be completed before the intensive and submitted not later than September 4 or when the first sermon manuscript is submitted, whichever comes first.

3. Sermon manuscript: Due no later than September 4. Please upload or email a verbatim manuscript of the sermon AND bring me a revised hard copy prior to preaching it. The uploaded or emailed copy allows me to offer coaching. The hard copy allows me to take notes while you preach. STRONG SUGGESTION: The sooner you submit the first draft, the more time it allows me to offer suggestions that you might find worth implementing.

NOTE: Please submit these and all other assignments as Word documents (.doc or .docx), as I wish to affix comments on the documents. Please also write your name on this and all other assignments.

REQUIREMENTS DURING COURSE INTENSIVE

Sermon #1: Students will prepare and deliver a 20-minute Textual Sermon. By definition, a textual sermon probes a brief passage of scripture, allowing the speaker to mine its depths for spiritual nuggets. It is not topical or thematic in its style or presentation.

POST-INTENSIVE COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Sermon manuscript: No later than 10 days before you preach your second (final) sermon, or November 26, whichever comes first. Please upload a verbatim manuscript of the prophetic preaching sermon (also textual in nature) OR email the verbatim manuscript to me. This allows me to provide coaching in anticipation of your sermon (see STRONG SUGGESTION regarding the timing of the submission given in pre-intensive section). NOTE: Because prophetic preaching is foreign to most pastors/preachers, it is VERY STRONGLY encouraged to share your possible preaching idea with the professor prior to investing time and effort in research and writing.
2. Students will preach a Prophetic Sermon within their ministry context using principles from Tisdale's book and class lectures/discussions. It should not exceed 30 minutes and should be either textual or narrative in its delivery (but not topical/thematic). Participants must submit on Learning Hub a link for viewing their sermons. Be sure to arrange to preach your sermons not later than December 6 and send me the link not later than December 8.
3. Sermon Prep Paper: Students will be asked to turn in a sermon preparation paper for the prophetic sermon. See the sermon preparation guide later in this syllabus. This is due no later than when the manuscript is submitted.
4. Self-Assessment: Students will watch the video of the second sermon and use the preaching assessment document for self-assessment of the sermon. Students should rate themselves honestly and transparently in each category. In the comments section they should list what they believe they did well and where they need to improve (please complete the comments section, as it fleshes out your self-reflection process). If there are no submitted video links, students will not receive any credit for their self-assessment. Please review your video and analyze it as soon as possible after preaching it, especially if toward the deadline for final submission of assignments.

5. Read Williams' Nothing But the Best and write a four-page (minimum) review (excluding cover page). The review should summarize the contents of the book and assess its strengths and weaknesses as pertaining to the subject matter. Additionally, the writer should share how he/she wishes to incorporate into the sermons the lessons learned as pertaining to its subject matter.
Due date: October 6.
6. DVDs On Learning Hub: Watch three of the following: "Making The Mummies Dance" a lecture by Richard Farmer; "The Listener and The Biblical Text" a lecture by Thomas Long; Of Towers and Lights by Calvin Butts, a Prophetic Preaching sermon. Write a two- to three-page analysis of each presentation (excluding cover page), evaluating and comparing strengths and weaknesses, noting what, if anything, you have learned or confirmed that will strengthen your preaching. The deadlines for the DVD summaries—regardless of the order in which you view them—are October 15, October 24, and November 3.
7. Read Tisdale's Prophetic Preaching and write a four-page (minimum) review (excluding cover page). The review should summarize the contents of the book and assess its strengths and weaknesses as pertaining to the subject matter. Additionally, the writer should share how he/she wishes to incorporate into the sermons the lessons learned as pertaining to its subject matter.
Due date: November 17.

Please note that although the semester ends on December 11, no assignments will be accepted after December 8 unless advance communication with the professor has resulted in an agreement to an alternate approach.

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is required during all class sessions. Because it is a fast-paced intensive, missing even a short amount of time magnifies the possibility of missing critical learning opportunities. Keep in mind that the greatest learning opportunities are provided through the interaction that we all experience with one another. When the total amount of time missed exceeds 10%, the teacher may assign a lower overall grade. Please arrange your regular work affairs in a manner where you can dedicate full attention to the time for the intensive. Please stay on top of the course expectations throughout the semester, especially during the post-intensive months and especially if you're concurrently taking another course. Like all other courses, it becomes challenging to catch up if one falls behind.

- Courses for academic masters' (e.g. MA [Religion]) and all doctoral degrees include 15 instructor contact hours, and 45 hours of independent learning activities.

The calculation of hours is based on the study skills of the average well-prepared graduate student. Students weak in these skills: 1) may require more time and should consider taking fewer classes each semester; and 2) can find skill development assistance through the Seminary Study and Research Skills Colloquia, the AU Writing Center, and AU Student Success office.

In order to achieve the outcomes of this course, learning time will be distributed as follows:

		Professional Masters' Programs

ABOUT YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Willie Edward Hucks II has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church in various capacities since 1985. He spent the first 14 years of ministry pastoring congregations in Texas and Louisiana. In 1999, he accepted a call to serve as a religion professor at Southwestern Adventist University, where he remained for seven years. In 2006, he began serving as associate editor of Ministry, International Journal for Pastors, headquartered in Silver Spring, Maryland; and in 2010, he also assumed responsibilities serving as an associate ministerial secretary for the GC Ministerial Association, focusing on theological education and ministerial preparation.

In 2016, Dr. Hucks accepted a call to serve as associate professor of Christian Ministry in the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, focusing on homiletics and urban ministry. From 2018 to 2024, he served as Chair of what is now known as the Department of Practical and Applied Theology (formerly Christian Ministry Department) in addition to his teaching responsibilities. Currently, he serves as Assistant to the President for University Mission and Culture at Andrews University while retaining faculty appointment.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Dr. Hucks earned his undergraduate ministerial degree from Oakwood College, and his Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Andrews University. Dr. Hucks has been published in several popular and professional journals. However, his greatest joy comes from calling Kathleen (nee Alexander) his wife since 1987; and they are the proud parents of two adult children and grandparents of a grandson born in February 2024.

OTHER COURSE-RELATED POLICIES

Academic Integrity

The Seminary expects its students to exhibit rigorous moral integrity appropriate to ministry leaders representing Jesus Christ. Complete honesty in academic matters is a vital component of such integrity. Any breach of academic integrity in this class is subject to discipline. Consequences may include receipt of a reduced or failing grade, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university. A record of academic integrity violations is maintained by the University Student Academic Integrity Council. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to an Academic Integrity Panel for recommendations on further penalties.

Academic Dishonesty includes:

- Plagiarism in which one fails to give credit every time use is made of another person's ideas or exact words, whether in a formal paper or in submitted notes or assignments. Credit is to be given by use of:
 - Correctly designed and inserted footnotes each time one makes use of another individual's research and/or ideas; and
 - Quotation marks placed around any exact phrases or sentences (3 or more words) taken from the text or speech of another individual.
- Presenting another's work as one's own (e.g., placement exams, homework assignments);
- Using materials during a quiz or examination other than those explicitly allowed by the teacher or program;
- Stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials;
- Copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz;
- Assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty
- Submitting the same work or major portions thereof, without permission from the instructors, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

At The Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, we acknowledge the transformative impact of Artificial Intelligence (AI) on education and research. AI tools offer a range of capabilities that can enhance accessibility, streamline learning processes, and support academic excellence. From grammar correction and logical flow analysis to brainstorming and idea lookup, AI tools help students sharpen their thinking and present their ideas more effectively. For instance, AI can support self-quizzing, assist in the pre-reading of materials, and aid in the development of structured thesis statements.

However, the benefits of AI must be balanced with awareness of its limitations and risks, as well as a commitment to ethical use. While AI can serve as a powerful tool, its application must uphold our seminary's values of originality, integrity, and accountability.

Appropriate Uses of AI in Academic Work:

- AI-powered tools may be used to enhance students' understanding of complex ideas, assist in logical flow analysis, and provide support with grammar, syntax, and thesis development.
- AI tools can help students brainstorm, create structured outlines, and analyze data patterns for research projects, offering vital support for academic rigor.
- Students using AI for academic purposes are required to document its use clearly in a footnote, specifying the tool and purpose to ensure transparency. Students need to clearly also state the source, usage, tools as well as the amount/quantity of AI generated text they included in the paper.

Inappropriate Uses and Accountability:

- AI-generated content must not be presented as original work. Any attempt to pass off AI-generated text as one's own or to use AI to fabricate sources will be considered academic dishonesty, with serious consequences. When a case of academic dishonesty is identified, the faculty member formally reports the incident to the academic dean. The academic dean reviews the case and may refer it to the seminary's conduct committee for further investigation. The committee evaluates the evidence, hears from the involved parties, and determines the appropriate consequences based on the severity of the violation. Depending on the findings, disciplinary actions may range from formal warnings to suspension or, in the most severe cases, if it's recurring expulsion from the program. This process underscores the seminary's commitment to academic integrity and the ethical development of its students.
- AI cannot be used for completing exams, take-home tests, or assignments intended to assess students' independent understanding.
- Students are expected to verify any information generated by AI and are responsible for inaccuracies or unsupported claims that may result from AI's occasional "hallucinations" or fabrication of sources.

Risks and Limitations of AI: AI's potential risks in academic settings must be carefully managed. Overdependence on AI can impair students' ability to think critically and independently. Students must also be vigilant against AI's tendency to create false or fabricated references, a risk that could lead to accidental plagiarism. Additionally, without proper oversight, AI's design can sometimes inadvertently spread misinformation, undermining the reliability of academic work.

Faculty need to review AI-related submissions carefully, with an understanding of AI's strengths and weaknesses. AI can serve as a beneficial supplement to learning but should not replace essential academic skills or undermine the authentic voice and insight students bring to their work.

Commitment to Ethical Standards and Academic Integrity: At the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, our commitment is to foster an environment where AI enhances, rather than diminishes, the academic experience. Both students and faculty share responsibility in using AI thoughtfully and ethically. We continue to reassess AI's role in academic settings, ensuring it aligns with our mission to support both intellectual and moral development.

In conclusion, AI has the potential to enrich academic work when used responsibly. By combining its advantages with a commitment to integrity, accountability, and critical thought, we can create a balanced approach to AI in education that supports, rather than detracts from, true learning.

Additional Policies

Examinations

“Credit is not granted in courses unless the required examinations are completed by the student. Students are expected to follow the published examination schedule. In cases where the schedule requires a student to complete four exams in one day, arrangements may be made with the dean to complete one of the examinations at another time”.

AU Bulletin

Class Attendance

“Regular attendance at all classes, laboratories and other academic appointments is required for each student. Faculty members are expected to keep regular attendance records. The syllabus notifies students of the attendance requirements.

AU Bulletin

Teacher Tardiness

“Teachers have the responsibility of getting to class on time. If a teacher is detained and will be late, the teacher must send a message to the class with directions. If after 10 minutes no message has been received, students may leave without penalty. If teacher tardiness persists, students have the right to notify the department chair, or if the teacher is the department chair, to notify the dean”.

AU Bulletin

Class Absences

“Whenever the number of absences exceeds 20% (10% for graduate classes) of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence.

Registered students are considered class members until they file a Change of Registration form in the Office of Academic records”.

AU Bulletin

Excused Absences

“Excuses for absences due to illness are granted by the teacher. Proof of illness is required. Residence hall students are required to see a nurse on the first day of any illness which interferes with class attendance. Non-residence hall students should show written verification of illness obtained from their own physician. Excuses for absences not due to illness are issued directly to the dean’s office. Excused absences do not remove the student’s responsibility to complete all requirements of a course. Class work is made up by permission of the teacher”.

AU Bulletin

COVID-19 guidelines and accommodations for syllabi

The COVID-19 situation remains fluid and therefore necessitates flexibility on the part of the instructor and the students. Communication is key for a successful semester. Students, please be in contact with your instructor if any situation arises that interferes with your learning. Your instructor will do the same.

Additionally, we ask the following from students:

1. If you are exhibiting symptoms or believe you may have been exposed to COVID-19, please do not physically attend class. Reach out to your instructor immediately to work out the details on how you can continue learning.
2. If this course has a remote learning element, please follow your teachers' instructions and policies for camera, microphone, and software use.
3. Students in this course commit to creating a safe classroom environment which precludes posting class materials (including links to unlisted videos or clips of videos removed from context) to social media or other forums. Likewise, Christian ethics rule out disparaging faculty and classmates on social media or in virtual spaces.
4. Note that your instructor or a family member may be affected by the ongoing COVID-19 challenges. We are asking for your understanding and flexibility if classes need to be disrupted, adapted, or modified.

Incomplete Policies

Stipulations

An Incomplete can be assigned only if the following stipulations are met:

- When 70% of the work for the course has been completed
- The request comes due to illness or unavoidable circumstances
- Incompletes cannot be assigned because of negligence or inferior performance
- Students will be billed for each incomplete.

Faculty must submit an incomplete contract which clearly states

- A list of work to be completed
- The date by which each assignment will be submitted
- The requested completion date, which must be prior to the end of the next semester.
- The grade the student will receive if the work is not completed by the agreed-upon time.

Withdrawing from a Class

Please keep in mind that the last day to withdraw from a class without receiving a grade is _____.

Diversity and Belonging Statement

In this learning space, we affirm that all humanity has been created in God's image; and as such, we firmly and passionately commit to honor the dignity that God has placed in each one of us. As we engage in the learning enterprise, we will respect one another's identities and celebrate the diversity that each person brings into the classroom.

As a learning community, we will work intentionally to ensure that everyone feels a sense of belonging, love, respect, and value. We will purposely work to fight against racism, misogyny, xenophobia, and all other forms of discrimination, not settling to merely acknowledge its existence. We commit to advocating for one another and protecting one another by speaking against injustice and prejudice, regardless of how uncomfortable the conversation might prove to be.

As your instructor, I commit to including diverse voices and authorship in the course materials, to facilitate respectful interactions, to provide the appropriate support when we discuss difficult topics, to speak up when discrimination or bullying occurs, to listen to your feedback, and to be a co-learner with you on this journey.

APPENDIX 1: INTERPRETING LETTER GRADES

Letter Grades and Percentages

Grading Scale:

A= 94% +	B= 83–86%	C= 73–76%
A-= 90–93%	B-= 80–82%	C-= 70–72%
B+= 87–89%	C+= 77–79%	D= 65–69%
		F= 64% and below

THE B GRADE

The B grade is a sign that you have competently fulfilled all of the requirements stipulated for an assessment or competency evaluation. It is a very good grade and demonstrates a high level of the knowledge, insight, critical competence and professional presentation standards essential for an individual wishing to pursue a career as a professional leader in ministry.

THE A GRADE

An A grade is given only when a student not only fulfills the criteria for a B grade, but in doing so demonstrates an advanced academic aptitude for content knowledge, critique, synthesis and independent insight, while exhibiting highly developed communication skills and professional publication standards that would allow them to pursue a highly competitive academic career.

THE C GRADE

The C grade differs only from a B grade in that the traits outlined in the B grade above are not consistently applied. However, with diligence and by applying feedback from your lecturer, the academic process can provide opportunity for a student to improve their consistency, and hence, their grade.

THE D GRADE

The D grade points to a limited level of knowledge, insight, and critique, as well as to inadequate quality of written work. This may be because of a lack of time management on the part of the student, difficulty grasping the concepts being taught, use of English as a second language, or a personal issue that is affecting one's concentration and motivation levels. Again, with diligence, applying feedback from your lecturer, and seeking services offered by the University like the writing lab or the counseling center, the academic process can provide an opportunity for a student to significantly improve their performance.

THE F GRADE

A failing grade is given when very limited or no demonstrable competency has been observed.
