Welcome!

We are delighted you have joined us for Family Celebration Sabbath 2011! We invite you to share in our “Celebration of Love,” featuring David and Beverly Sedlacek. Their passion for God and dedication to each other will surely be an inspiration to all of us.

May you encounter God’s goodness and love in the fellowship and worship that awaits. Pastor Michael Paradise and the entire worship team invite you to bring God praise and to experience His presence. As a courtesy, we kindly ask that you turn your cell phone off during our services throughout the weekend. Know that we are here to be of service, so please do not hesitate to let us know if we can be of help or support.

A special welcome to our Doctoral, Masters, and Graduate Certificate students on campus for summer classes. Greetings to the variety of professionals and educators who are passionate about our families in the church and greater community. May you find refreshment and reminders of God’s grace throughout this time.

Our Distinguished Service Award Recipients

College, and Washington Adventist University, primarily in the areas of financial aid and admissions. She also served as a marriage and family consultant for the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America for the last 15 years.

The Olivets regularly conduct marriage conferences, retreats and relationship seminars. They are the founders of From This Day Forward one-day marriage conferences, Journey Toward Intimacy marriage retreats, and authors of From This Day Forward column in Message magazine. Their "keeping it real" presentation style keeps them in high demand around the world.

The Olivets have been married for 26 years and are the parents of two young adult children, Jessica and Julian. In their spare time they enjoy taking long walks, beach vacations, gardening, exotic cuisines, and spending time with family and friends.

Elaine and Willie Oliver are directors of the Department of Family Ministries for the Seventh-day Adventist Church World Headquarters.

An ordained minister, Willie holds a PhD in Family Sociology, and masters' degrees in Pastoral Counseling and Sociology. He is the former Director of Family Ministries for the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, the Atlantic Union Conference, and the Greater New York Conference.

Elaine holds a master's degree in Higher Education with concentrations in student development and counseling. For the past two decades she served as an administrator at Barnard College, Columbia University, Atlantic Union

David & Beverly Bedlack

David received his master's and doctorate in Social Work from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. He has worked in various settings, both public and private, as a clinician, researcher, teacher, pastor, and administrator. His passion is the integration of Biblical principles into Social Work practice. He has worked extensively in the areas of addiction, abuse, relationships, marriage and family. He has appeared on television regularly speaking on the topics of addiction, shame, divorce and healthy families. He is currently Professor of Family Ministry and Discipleship and Coordinator of the MDiv/MSW and the MARYAM/MSW collaboratives at Andrews University.

Beverly has a master's degree in psychiatric nursing from Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. She is currently teaches psychiatric nursing at Indiana University at South Bend. She is Director of Into HIS Rest Ministries, a Christian counseling ministry, where she works with clients, conducts retreats, speaks at conferences and writes. Beverly has a passion for working with hurting women and leading intensive weekend seminars with groups of women around the country. She has spoken on radio and appeared on television on numerous occasions.

Beverly and David have traveled the road of healing themselves, and invite the courageous to join them in God's work of restoration and cleansing the sanctuary of our hearts.
