ADVENTIST CONFERENCE ON FAMILY RESEARCH & PRACTICE

July 16-18, 2015

WELCOME

Welcome to the third annual Adventist Conference on Family Research and Practice (ACFRP). Since 1975 a family strengthening event has been held on the campus of Andrews University sponsored by the School of Education, the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, the Departments of Family Ministries at the General Conference and the North American Division, or a combination of these entities. The purpose has always been to celebrate and educate our constituencies about the importance of ministry to families in the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

This year's conference promises to be an excellent one with outstanding plenary and keynote speakers, and the largest offerings of research and practice workshops ever since the ACFRP iteration has been established. This allows participants to select from a broader variety of informative and challenging topics. Six continuing education units (CEUs) have been approved for both social work and pastoral ministry.

We are privileged to have Dr. Scott Stanley commence the Conference with two stimulating keynote addresses based on his research. The principal spiritual tone of the Conference is accented this year with Pastor Roger and Kathy Hernandez focusing on this year's conference theme, Building Family Memories: Leaving a Spiritual Legacy.

This event continues to be planned to attract Doctor of Ministry students who have chosen an emphasis in Family Ministry, and MA and PhD students in Religious Education who choose either the Family Life or Children's Ministry emphasis. MDiv students who are taking Marriage, Family and Interpersonal Relationship Skills also attend in large numbers.

The success of this event is due to the collaborative effort of the Department of Discipleship and Religious Education at the Seminary, the Departments of Behavioral Science and Social Work at Andrews University, the Family Ministries Departments at the General Conference and the North American Division, and AdventSource. Thus, it attracts faculty and students from throughout the campus community, family ministry leaders and church members from the Michiana area and throughout the world. If you are in any of these groups, we believe your ministry will be enriched as you participate in the various presentations focused on ministry to families throughout the Conference.

Our prayer is that you will experience the loving embrace of Jesus Christ while you are here. Enjoy the learning, soak in the fellowship, savor the food, and share your experience. If there is anything that we can do to improve your experience, please let one of us know.

NAD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS

Jeanne and Ray Hartwell

Jeanne and Ray Hartwell both grew up in Seventh-day Adventist homes and attended Adventist schools up through their college experience. They graduated from Southern Adventist University in May of 1978 and were married two weeks later. Over their years of ministry Ray and Jeanne have worked to make strong couples and families in their congregations through both counseling and church programs and activities, and also through leading by example. In the last church they were in before going into administration they announced to the church that their family day would be Thursday and that they wouldn't be available to the congregation except in emergencies on those days. At first this was met with some resistance, but before long families in the church started following their example. After they moved away church members requested that the conference send them another pastoral couple that highly valued their family. Ray and Jeanne have served in the Kentucky-Tennessee, Iowa-Missouri and Carolina Conferences. In their last church the conference hired Ray as senior pastor and Jeanne as associate pastor.

The Hartwells work at the Pennsylvania Conference office. Ray is the President and Jeanne is the Family Ministries Director and the Associate Ministerial Director. Jeanne has served in this position for 19 years. Ray has served as the Secretariat and Ministerial Director for the first 9 years in PA and as President for the last 10 years. They have two children. Josh is married and has just provided them with their first grandchild, and Abby has just graduated with a BA in Interior Design. Life has definitely been an adventure for them!

Lael Caesar, Ph.D. & Lena Caesar, Ed.D., Ph.D.

Lael and Lena Caesar love each other, love their neighbors and their enemies, and love to work for God. He welcomed her to the campus of the University of the Southern Caribbean the day she arrived, and not too long after that, asked her for a date. She immediately said "Yes." Back in her room she decided that it gave the wrong impression to say "yes" on the spot. So she told him that she had changed her mind. Since then, he has been working on getting her back. In 1974 they both said "yes," and now they share a permanent honeymoon in Laurel, Maryland.

Lael has worked as district pastor, conference departmental director, and college professor. He holds a Ph.D. in Hebrew & Semitic Studies from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Lena has been a High School English teacher, Modern Language Institute director, and professor of Speech Language Pathology. She holds an M.S. from UW Madison, an Ed.D. in Special Education and a Ph.D. in Interdisciplinary Health Studies from Western Michigan University. Lael and Lena taught for 4 ½ years at Montemorelos University, and for 15 years at Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan. Currently, Lael is an associate editor of the Adventist Review and Adventist World magazines, and Research Professor of Hebrew Bible at Andrews University. Lena taught and directed the department of Speech Language Pathology and Audiology at Andrews University as she does now at Loyola University. Lena and Lael have authored scores of professional and scholarly articles in their respective fields and are in demand as speakers and seminar presenters. Their son, Lloyd, and daughter, La Vonne are both graduates of Andrews University.
