INTERNATIONAL STUDY

- Our off-campus programs are located in 19 countries on five continents, allowing students to transfer approved credits to Andrews.
- Many on-campus programs, including photography, political science, biology, architecture, communication, behavioral science and international languages, take annual study tours for credit to international locations on six continents, such as Argentina, Austria, Brazil, China, France, Greece, Italy, Singapore, Spain and Taiwan.
- Andrews participates in Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA), a program that allows students to study a language overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. ACA locations include Argentina, Austria, Brazil, England, France, Greece, Singapore, Spain, Taiwan and Italy.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE (www.andrews.edu/life/spiritual)

- The annual ministry fair offers enrollment opportunities for student volunteers in dozens of ministries.
- Student Missions: Thirty-four students spent the 2013–14 school year as student missionaries. Students had the opportunity to spend a year building churches, teaching, preaching, flying planes, and performing a variety of other services in the mission field of their choice.
- Outreach: This student-led initiative reaches out to people living in economically underdeveloped districts of Benton Harbor. Each Saturday afternoon, dozens of students engage in a variety of ministries, including children’s activities, puppet shows, health workshops, family group ministries, musical lessons, and door-to-door witnessing.
- AIM: The nationwide call center for North American Division media ministries, the campus-based Adventist Information Ministry employs students to represent Christ through media evangelism.
- Students also have frequent opportunities to participate in many worship programs on campus, including weekday services in the residence halls, co-curricular choices, GROW groups, University Vespers, Elements, Impact and Sabbath School services at PMC, One Place and New Life, plus the nearly 30 area Sabbath services that take place every week.

LIFE@ANDREWS
