CAMPUS
• Consists of 1,600 acres on the St. Joseph River, 12 miles from Lake Michigan.
• Includes 26 instructional buildings, four residence halls, four apartment complexes, three libraries, an astronomy observatory, a produce and dairy farm, a 50,000-watt FM radio station, a performing arts center, two eateries, three museums and an airpark.
• An officially registered arboretum, with more than 500 labeled trees and 150 species.
• Campus Safety: 24-hour safety patrol, a well-lighted campus, and a nighttime gate house system
• James White Library: The largest and perhaps most important collection of research material in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The library holdings contain more than 1.6 million pieces. It also houses the Center for Adventist Research and University Archives.
• WAUS: This campus-based FM station is Michiana’s leading source of classical music.
• Howard Performing Arts Center: Attracting some of the best classical and Christian performers, our exceptional performing arts center is a great resource.
INTERNATIONAL STUDY

• Our off-campus programs are located in 19 countries on five continents, allowing students to transfer approved credits to Andrews.

• Many on-campus programs, including behavioral sciences, biology, engineering & computer science, international languages, music, photography and religion, take annual study tours for credit to international locations such as, Argentina, Brazil, France, Greece, Italy, Jordan, Madagascar, Peru, Singapore, Spain and the Bible Lands.

• Andrews participates in Adventist Colleges Abroad (ACA), a program that allows students to study a language overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. ACA locations include Argentina, Austria, Brazil, England, France, Greece, Singapore, Spain, Taiwan and Italy.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE (www.andrews.edu/life/spiritual)

• The annual ministry fair offers enrollment opportunities for student volunteers in dozens of ministries.

• Student Missions: 16 students spent the 2014–15 school year as student missionaries. Students had the opportunity to spend a year building churches, teaching, preaching, flying planes, and performing a variety of other services in the mission field of their choice.

• Service: Campus Ministries encourages the entire University community to use their time, talents and spiritual gifts to make a difference in someone’s life. There is a vast array of service opportunities in the local community as well as on campus, including monthly group service projects or individual opportunities to fit your schedule.

• AIM: The nationwide call center for North American Division media ministries, the campus-based Adventist Information Ministry employs students to represent Christ through media evangelism.

• There are frequent opportunities to participate in many worship programs on campus, including weekday Campus Ministries Bible studies, Triads, services in the residence halls, co-curricular choices, GROW groups, University Vespers, Elements, Impact and Sabbath School services at PMC, One Place and New Life, plus the nearly 30 area Sabbath services that take place every week.

LIFE@ANDREWS
