

HOW DO I GET FROM MIDWAY AIRPORT TO ANDREWS UNIVERSITY?

Andrews Transportation does not provide pick up services from the Chicago, Illinois area. We recommend your final destination to be the South Bend International Airport (SBN) anytime you plan to visit Andrews University and need a ride to the campus.

Possible travel options from Chicago, IL to South Bend are noted below and are subject to change at any time by the provider. Be sure to secure travel route and information from the provider websites directly.

BY TAXI – using taxi/Uber/Lyft from airport to South Shore Train station.

Secure ride with taxi/Uber/Lyft which are available at the airport. Request transport to Millennium Station/South Shore Train then purchase train ticket to South Bend Airport train station.

BY TRAIN – using train systems – requires some walking.

There are no trains that offer direct travel from the Midway International Airport to South Bend, Indiana. However, possible train or bus routes are available but very complicated. The Midway Airport link for transport by train follows, but we recommend taking a cab/Uber to Millennium Station which is the quickest and most manageable route.

If you want to try to navigate the subway instead of taking a cab, the link below will help. Your destination will be the Millennium Station/South Shore Train station.

Enter train station and purchase a one-way ticket from Millennium South Shore train station to the South Bend, Indiana Airport station. (Review the schedule carefully because the train does not run on a 24-hour schedule.)

BY BUS

Currently there are no buses traveling directly from Midway International Airport to South Bend, Indiana airport. Previous services ended with COVID lock-downs and have not resumed.

Grey Hound bus systems do travel from Chicago, Illinois to South Bend, Indiana and to Niles Michigan but you must first get to the nearest Grey Hound bus station from the airport. Best option is to take a taxi/Uber/Lyft to the closest Greyhound bus station, purchase tickets for South Bend, Indiana or Niles, Michigan, if you choose to travel by bus. Traveling by bus can add quite a bit of additional time to your travel, so keep that in mind when planning your trip. <https://www.greyhound.com/en>
