

Issues In Supervision

July 22, 1997

Topics of Discussion

- Identify Several Issues In Supervision
- Explain Varying Positions On Each Issue
- Choose and Defend Your Position On Each Issue

Issues In Supervision

- Is supervision necessary?
- For whom should supervision be provided?
- Should the supervisor's authority be based on expertise and interpersonal relationships or on conferred status and decision-making responsibilities?
- Should the supervisor be an administrator?
- Is supervision staff development?
- Is supervision curriculum development?
- Is supervision evaluation?
- Should supervisors work with groups of teachers or with individual teachers?
- Should supervision be carried out by the central office or local schools?
- Should the supervisor use a directive or nondirective approach?
- Should school systems organize for supervision by employing generalists or by hiring specialists?