V. Spiritualism Infiltrating Christianity

- A. Rev 16:13-14

- B. Great Controversy, 588: “Through the two great errors, the immortality of the soul and Sunday sacredness, Satan will bring the people under his deceptions. While the former lays the foundation of spiritualism, the latter creates a bond of sympathy with Rome. . . . As spiritualism more closely imitates the nominal Christianity of the day, it has greater power to deceive and ensnare. . . . And as the spirits will profess faith in the Bible, and manifest respect for the institutions of the church, their work will be accepted as a manifestation of divine power. . . . The line of demarcation between professed Christians and the ungodly is now hardly distinguishable. Church members love what the world loves and are ready to join with them, and Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism. [Roman Catholics], who boast of miracles as a certain sign of the true church, will be readily deceived by this wonder-working power; and Protestants, having cast away the shield of truth, will also be deluded. [Catholics], Protestants, and worldlings will alike accept the form of godliness without the power, and they will see in this union a grand movement for the conversion of the world and the ushering in of the long-expected millennium.”

- D. Bible truth. Gen 2:7; 3:4-5; Eccl. 9:5; 1 Sam 28:19, Satan alias “Samuel,” tells Saul, “Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me;” 2 Cor. 11:14.

VI. Gospel to All the World

- A. Matt 24:14; 2 Peter 3:12
- B. If time lasts till 2020, there will be an estimated 40 million Adventists in the world. Not a majority, but not the church invisible either.
- C. “Christ’s coming . . . will not tarry past the time that the message is borne to all nations, tongues, and peoples” (RH, June 18, 1901, see also Evangelism 697). Thousands of major people groups have yet to hear the message.

VIII. 9-11, 9T 11, and Daniel 11

- A. Context: 1904. Predictions of World War I are mingled with indicators of last-day events.
- B. “The final movements will be rapid ones” (9T 11).
- C. New York City. Two American cities had skyscrapers in 1904, but only NY is the capital of capitalism.
- D. “Buildings rising . . . toward heaven. . . higher and still higher.” Erected “to glorify their owners and builders,” “these buildings were warranted to be fireproof,” and were declared “perfectly safe” (9T 12-13).
- D. “Buildings were consumed as if made of pitch.” Pitch is “a sticky resinous black or dark brown substance which hardens on cooling, obtained by distilling tar or turpentine”—Oxford Dictionary. “As if made of pitch” has two meanings: (1) Pitch makes a hot fire that burns very fast. The Twin Towers—enormous buildings—came down in less than two hours. (2) Pitch produces thick black smoke. Who could forget the image of black smoke pouring from the Twin Towers. How literal does a prophecy have to be before we can admit its fulfillment? Did she have to write in 1904 that the buildings would burn “as if flooded with 15,000 gallons of jet fuel”?
- E. “Fire engines could do nothing to stay the destruction.” The best firemen in the world could not quench the flames. The further prediction that “The firemen were unable to operate the engines” was fulfilled in two ways: (1) At first the fire was so far above the street that the engines couldn’t reach it. (2) While the firemen were dragging hoses up stairwells to get closer to the fire, the fire engines were buried under the collapsing buildings.
- F. Aftermath of 9-11: War, Daniel 11, Time of Trouble.
  - 1. “The world is stirred with the spirit of war.” “The spirit of war is stirring the nations from one end of the earth to the other” (9T 14, 17).
  - 2. Daniel 11 “has nearly reached its complete fulfillment” (9T 14).
  - 3. “Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place” [see Daniel 12:1-2]. “But in the midst of the time of trouble that is coming,—a time of trouble such as has not been since there was a nation,—God’s chosen people will stand unmoved. Satan and his host cannot destroy them, for angels that excel in strength will protect them” (9T 14, 17).
