HELLO

At any age, the decision to seek knowledge greatly enriches our future. Andrews University faculty, staff, and students are delighted you have chosen to connect with us as part of your life journey. With our history of academic quality, our tradition of caring, competent teachers, and our emphasis on Christian life, Andrews promises to nurture your mind as well as your spirit. Completing this application is the first step to SEEK KNOWLEDGE, AFFIRM FAITH, CHANGE THE WORLD.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST

The checklist provided below is designed to help you keep things straight (See the information below the checklist for more details). For your convenience, these forms are also available online at www.andrews.edu/future.

- ☐ Undergraduate application (priority deadline July 15)
- ☐ $30 non-refundable application fee
- ☐ Official ACT or SAT scores for first-time freshmen must be taken by July 15 (unless these tests are not available in your region)
- ☐ Official final high school transcript (You may send an unofficial partial transcript through the end of the 11th grade year for acceptance purposes but must request an official final high school transcript as soon as you graduate)
- ☐ Official college transcripts (if you have ever attended a college or a high school student that has taken college level courses)

APPLICATION AND APPLICATION FEE

Complete (by typing or writing in ink) and sign this application, then submit it with the required non-refundable $30 (U.S.) application fee. Please make your check or money order payable to: Andrews University Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

TRANSCRIPTS

Submit official transcript(s) from the secondary school (high school or academy) that you graduated from as well as any college or university you attended or received credit from. All undergraduate applicants must submit a final/official secondary school transcript as required by Michigan State Law. Please send transcripts directly to the Andrews University Office of Undergraduate Admissions from the high school you graduated from and/or colleges or universities you attended.

ADMISSIONS GUIDELINES

- At least a 2.50 cumulative high school and/or college GPA is required for admission to Andrews University; or, an overall GED score of at least the 50th percentile.

ADMISSIONS GUIDELINES continued

- Entering freshmen must be a high school graduate or equivalent (with less than 25 credits of college level coursework after high school graduation): ACT/SAT composite and individual scores of at least the 50th percentile (for good and regular admission).
- Transfer students (25 or more credits of college level coursework after high school graduation): ACT/SAT tests are recommended, but not required.
- Homeschool students: Please explore our complete requirements and guidelines at www.andrews.edu/homeschool.
- International students: Transcripts and exam scores will be evaluated in accordance with published academic equivalency guidelines for the country where you studied. Educational Summary sheet needs to be completed and submitted. College or university transcripts issued in a language other than English must be accompanied by an authorized English translation. You may find more information at www.andrews.edu/go/intlguide.
- English Proficiency: If English is not your first language, you will need to meet English proficiency requirements before you can enroll as a full-time Andrews University student, as outlined online at: www.andrews.edu/go/ciep. Courses in our Intensive English Program on campus are available if needed.

ADMISSION STATUS

Your application, academic records and test scores will be reviewed by the Undergraduate Admissions Committee. Upon admission, we'll share with you the steps you'll need to take to enroll in classes as a student at Andrews University.

Students who do not meet the university's undergraduate admissions standards will receive a letter outlining the standards that were not met, and the alternatives open to the student for re-application in the future (including improved test scores or successfully-completed college level coursework).

Additionally, some transfer students who do not meet the GPA requirement of 2.50 or above, but who show significant potential, may be admitted with specific class assignments.

OUR COMMUNITY VALUES

Andrews University is a Christian community where Christ is celebrated and reflected in the academic, social and spiritual experiences of its members. As a Seventh-day Adventist institution, we seek to integrate faith, learning and living while each of us matures in our relationship with God and with each other.

Before enrolling, every student will be asked to agree to:

- ATTEND A FAITH-BASED INSTITUTION
Respect our Christian perspective and values.
- ADOPT A WHOLESOME LIFESTYLE
Refrain from dishonesty, immodesty, sexual impurity, abusive behavior and the possession or use of drugs, alcohol, tobacco or dangerous weapons.
- LIVE ON A RESIDENTIAL CAMPUS
Live in a residential hall and participate in a meal plan at the University's vegetarian Dining Services while under the age of 22, unless you live in the community with your parents.
- BE A PART OF A GATHERED COMMUNITY
Attend weekly chapels and other required co-curricular programs.

If you'd like to know more about the values, expectations, and services of the Christian community at Andrews University, we encourage you to review the online Andrews University Student Handbook, which can be found at www.andrews.edu/SL.

Admission to Andrews University is available to any student who meets the academic and character requirements of the University and who expresses willingness to cooperate with its policies. Because Andrews University is operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the majority of its students are Seventh-day Adventists. However, no particular religious commitment is required for admission; any qualified student who will be comfortable within its religious, social, and cultural atmosphere may be admitted. The University does not discriminate on the grounds of race, sex, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, age, disability or other legally protected characteristics.
